

I very much oppose weakening Indiana's law regarding Telephone Privacy Law. It should be my right as to who I can have use my phone number. I do not want these banks calling my house nor any other organization simply picking my number at random and calling me. If I need services, I am perfectly able to contact who I need to do business with.

Please do not allow anyone to override or disregard Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act. Thank you.

James Campagna